The Verdict

OF ALL who have used Ayer's Pills for Billiousness and Liver Complaint is that they are the best ever made. Being free from any mineral ingredients, and sugar-coated, Ayer's Pills are adapted to all ages, constitutions, and elimates.

"Having used Ayer's Pills for many years in my practice and family, I feel justified in recommending them as an excellent catharite and liver medicine. They sustain all the claims made for them."—W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & N. W. R. H. Co., Burnet, Texas, "Ayer's Pills keep my stomach and liver in perfect condition. Five years ago I was afflicted with enlargement of the liver and with a severe form of dyspensia, most of the time being unable to retain any solid food on my stomach. I finally began to take Ayer's Pills, and after using only three boxes of those magical pellets, was a. Well man. "Luclus Alexander, Marthiehead, Mass.

PASSING THE PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Each morning as we slowly pass,
The city's streets along,
We hear the voices of the class
Ring out the Nation's song. The lastics treble piping clear,
The laddles deep bass growl,
And from the boy who has no ear
A weird, discordant howl.

With swelling hearts we hear them sing "My country," its of thee!"
From childish throats the authem ring "Sweet land of Liberty!"

Their little hearts aglow with pride, Each with exultant tongue Proclaims: "From every mountain side Let Freedom's song be sung!" Let him who'd criticise the time, Or scout the harmony,

From scenes like these our grandeur spring And we shall e'er be stroug, While o'er the land, the school house rings Each day with Freedom's song. A GREAT AMERICAN SCULPTOR.

A Man Well Known in Wheeling and Vicin-ity-His Fame in Rome. Capitan Fracassa, of Rome, Haly. Our readers do not need to be presented to the illustrious Cavalier, M. Ezekiel, the great American sculptor, who has been living among us for many years, and who is known and admired by all who love beauty in its most complete who love beauty in its most complete form.

Many know this artist personally as a kind and valorous gentleman, and whoever by invitation has had the good fortune to make a single visit to his picturesque studio, situated in the baths of Diochetian, feels compelled by an irresistible attraction to return there again and again.

The enormous room, with its rough walls adorned by massive paintings and ornamentations, and filled with his creations of Judith, Homer, David, Eve and many others, serves as a reception apartment for the sculptor. This not being sufficiently large for his enormous works, Mr. Exekiel has added to this singular home, another part of the Crearian construction—another big room in the interior of the Terme, which seems and is a temple.

Here is nothing of the studio, that which is approached by a little exterior path serving as a staircase, a kind of conservatory or gallery adorned with flowers and vinces. Here is nothing but as snowy whiteness of marble; a white world of illustrious men who seem to laugh; of beautiful women who seem to laugh; of a few proposed by the second women to the first piece of dark meat? This noble face of Evangellne's poet is destined for the Cincinnati Art Museum. There is the bust itself so pure and vivid as to afford to us a double life, the poor moffer will beguile herself into believing that she still has the little treasure near her, with his father's violin in hand, crying disconsolately, as he used to do, when, instead of the bow, he was given a stick. Upon the pedestal of this figure Adolfo de Bosis, the illustrious translator of Shelley, and the dearest friend of Mr. Ezekiel, has written some sweet véraes.

That reclining figure represents Mrs. Andrew D. White, a lady widely known in Europe, especially in Berlin, where her husband was an ambassador from the United States. Her divine womanly form resis upon a couch spread with Second Autograph Frenc-Easy enough.
I would write some "Sweet Singer of Michigan" sort of verses, and print them in our local paper under the name of a poet I wanted to strike. Then I'd write to him, asking if it was true that they were written by him. I'd get a red-hot letter in reply every time, the United States. Her divine womanly form rests upon a couch spread with Damascus pillows, her shapely head inclined to the left, her hands clasped together more in a dreamy attitude than prayer. Upon her almost virginal breast there is a small spray of roses. Her dress is like a modern morning gown, plaited as a Grecian pephis, and gives to all her figure a dazzling and classical harmony. It seems as though the marble of Carriars in this wonderful work of Ezekiel's presents all of the grading of the white. Silvery white is the half waved in front and braided behind, the hair waved in front and braided behind.

(The beautiful lady, aithough not forty years old, really had hair of a snowy white color.) White also is her face of an alabaster transparency white her dress, lighter than the Cashmere, and transmitting the rays of light less than the India muelin.

One sees (Alas! who can not see?) that the lady sieeps a sleep far too aweet for awakening in this valgar world—a sleep in which porhaps she dreams happily. But it seems nevertheless, as if her bosom heaves with the gentle palpitutions that careas invisibly the bunch of roses; as if a gentle zephyr moves the folds of ber angelical gown.

In this, as in every figure of departed ones intrusted to Mr. Ezeklo's ability, death and life go hand in hand in such a way that they seem to blend with each other.

To cleanse the stomach, liver and system generally, use Dr. Pierce's Pellets. 25 cents.

RHRUMATISM is caused by a poisonous acid in the blood and yields to Ayer's Pills. Many cases which seemed chronic and hopeless, have been completely cured by this medicine. It will cost but little to try what effect the Pills may have in your case. We predict success.

Oliver Hampton Smith was elected Senator from Indiana in 1830. When the election was over Smith, who was a good lawyer and had been Congress eight or ten years before, took a drove of hogs down to Cincinnati, going on foot all the way. On the way he arrived at a layour nowed with multi unwashed and tavern covered with mud, unwashed and unshaven for many days. The crowd surrounded him, cager for the news of Who's elected Senator? Hendricks;

"Noble?"

"No."
"Who then?"
"I am!"
There was a dead silence for a moment, and then someone asked: "Who are you?"

When ex-President and Mrs. Cleveland passed through this village last week, we wrote in a jocular vein that "Frankie had married to a purpose." Imagine our chagrin when we read in our paper next day that "Frankie had married to," a porpoise." We make the correction in justice to Mr. Cleveland, and take occasion again to say that we regard him as the man for 1892.

In our account of the graduating exercises at the Young Ladies' Seminary for the headline "Ignorance and Folly" read "Innocence in Tulle."
